2011-2012 CLCI POLANCO FELLOWS APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

ONE OF A KIND LEADERSHIP PROGRAM FOR CALIFORNIA

(LOS ANGELES, CA) Today the California Latino Caucus Institute (CLCI) released the application for the new 2011-2012 CLCI Polanco Fellows class. Applications can be downloaded at www.clcipp.org. The deadline for submission of completed applications is 5:00 pm Friday, April 29, 2011.

“This program is a unique one of a kind leadership experience for public policy training”, said CLCI Chairman, Senator Richard Polanco (ret.). He continued, “As future leaders, the CLCI Polanco Fellows will gain a unique sensitivity and understanding of the diverse communities, public policy issues and impacts facing the California Legislature.”

The term of the CLCI Polanco Fellows Program will be 12 months beginning on September 1, 2011 and ending on August 31, 2012. Each Fellow will receive a monthly stipend of approximately $1,880 and serve as full-time staff in the Legislature or other branches of government in Sacramento. The CLCI leadership development program provides training in public policy, leadership, strategic management and legislative processes as well as on equality, race, class and gender issues.
